

BODEGAS HNOS. PÉREZ PASCUAS (D.O. Ribera del Duero, Spain)

Bodegas Hnos. Pérez Pascuas is an example of a well-consolidated cellar, family owned for 3 generations, distinguishing itself by maintaining an irreproachable personality in its wines year after year.

THE WINERY

This wine cellar, a pioneer in Ribera del Duero, released their first vintage in 1980, when three brothers: Benjamín, Manuel, and Adolfo Pérez Pascuas, convinced of the excellent potential that lay in the vineyards owned by their father, decided to undertake an ambitious project: “to make one of the best wines in Spain...”

This is a family cellar that has focused on the quality from its inception, hard work at the vineyard, and intense dedication. Currently 500,000 bottles are produced yearly, and this limited production allows for strict controls over the winemaking process from start to finish.

All grapes come from their own 333 acres of vineyards: 90% Tinto Fino (Tempranillo) and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. A great number of the vines are over twenty-five years old and grow on privileged soils.

The vineyards are located just outside of Roa, in Pedrosa de Duero in the D.O. Ribera del Duero. The terrain is smooth, and the soils are clay calcareous. The vineyards are located at an altitude of 2,624 feet above sea level.

This climate is Continental, with an Atlantic influence, and an average year-round temperature of 52°F, with an annual rainfall of about 19 inches.

Pérez Pascuas is located just outside the town of Roa in Pedrosa de Duero.

- Gastronomy: Pairs very well with lamb, game meats, and steaks over an open flame or charcoal.

This wine is only made in the best vintages when the grapes are perfectly healthy and achieve good balance between ripeness and freshness. Grapes are handpicked from the estate vineyards specific plots and older vines.

CRITICS AND REVIEWS:

Wine Advocate, Jan '23 gave 95 points, Viña Pedrosa Gran Reserva 2016 - "They are one of the few still using the Gran Reserva designation, and the 2016 Viña Pedrosa Gran Reserva shows textbook aromas of truffles and forest floor, earthy and spicy with notes of noble woods and a touch of soy sauce. It has a powerful palate with abundant but fine-grained and polished tannins after having spent two years in barrel and another couple of years in bottle."

Dr. Owen Bargreen, Sept '22 gave 94 points, Viña Pedrosa Gran Reserva 2016 - "Dense, chewy and downright delicious, the intense 2016 'Gran Reserva' by Vina Pedrosa opens with coffee grounds and worn leather notes that combine with freshly tilled soils on the nose. The palate is intense and heady with deep tannins that frame a beautiful core of black currants, tar, and espresso grounds. Gorgeous now at the six year mark, this beauty will easily cellar for another fifteen years."
